DESCRIPTION

The company operates multiple revenue streams in the CBD Industry, Major Broadcast Industry and Internet Provider Industry. Proscere Bioscience manufactures the first commercial industry standard cold-water CBD extraction system for medical grade cannabis utilization, along with their aeroponic commercial grade technology control containers for government food-safety programs, commercial and medical grade CBD. Satel Group is the premier high-rise DirecTV providers in the San Francisco metropolitan area, and is now expanding both DirecTV and Internet services across the SF Bay Area. Simlatus manufactures its own proprietary systems for the major broadcast studios, such as Warner Bros., Fox News, CBS and DirecTV. Its video technology is the major system used for underwater oil exploration in the world.
